Patient Registry Consent Form (Minor)

We are asking you to let us include your blood work results and medical information into a registry. A registry is a place where information on patients is entered and stored. It may help doctors and scientists better understand why people get the disease you have and may lead to better treatments. We will only be entering your existing blood work results and medical history. There are no extra blood draws involved with the registry. We will ask you some questions about what types of illnesses you have had in the past and we will enter this into the collection of information.

I have had this study explained to me in a way that I understand, and I have had the chance to ask questions. I agree to take part in this study.
